AGENDA ■
Thursday   June 8, 2006

8:30 – 8:45 COORDINATING PANEL: WELCOME
Dian M. Grueneich, Commissioner, California Public Utilities Commission
Cathy Iverson, Senior Energy Specialist, U.S. Department of Energy
Jerry Jordan, Executive Director, California Municipal Utilities Association
David Lee, Branch Chief, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency
Mary Nichols, President, Los Angeles Department of Water & Power Board of Directors

8:45 – 9:30 INTRODUCTORY REMARKS: THE IMPORTANCE OF LOW INCOME ENERGY EFFICIENCY
Senator Richard Polanco, Chairman, California Latino Caucus Institute
Deborah Reed, Program Director, Population, Public Policy Institute of California
Bill Slaton, Board Member, Sacramento Municipal Utility District
Frances Spivy-Weber, Executive Director, Policy, Mono Lake Committee

9:30 – 10:30 PANEL I: LOW INCOME ENERGY EFFICIENCY: THE MANY STAKEHOLDER ROLES
Moderator: Yole Whiting, San Diego Gas & Electric/Southern California Gas Company

Panelists:
Joel Eisenberg, Oak Ridge National Laboratory
David Lee, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency
Kevin Monte de Ramos, KMDR Research, Inc.

DISCUSSION AND Q&A

10:30 – 11:00 BREAK

11:00 – 12:00 PANEL II: LEADING BY EXAMPLE: EXEMPLARY LIEE PROGRAMS
Moderator: Dan York, American Council for an Energy Efficient Economy

Panelists:
Jim Grevatt, Efficiency Vermont
Kathy Grey, Eugene Water & Electric Board
Mariann Long, Anaheim Public Utilities Department, Anaheim, California
Roland Risser, Pacific Gas & Electric Company

DISCUSSION AND Q&A

12:00 – 1:00 PANEL III: THE BALANCING ACT OF EVALUATING SUCCESS: BENEFITS, COSTS, AND COST-EFFECTIVENESS
Moderator: Jeff Schlegel, Independent Contractor

Panelists:
Sami Khawaja, Quantec, LLC
Larry Pakenas, NYSERDA
Pam Rathbun, PA Consulting

DISCUSSION AND Q&A

1:00 CLOSING THOUGHTS – COORDINATING PANEL/OTHER OFFICIALS